

DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE, FACULTY OF FINE ARTS, YORK UNIVERSITY.

The Department of Theatre invites applications for a full-time tenure-track teaching position in Movement for Actors, at the Assistant Professor level, with undergraduate and graduate teaching responsibilities, effective July 1, 2007. All positions at York are subject to budgetary approval. Deadline for applications is Friday, December 1, 2006.

The position requires a person qualified to teach movement and dance for actors, with some ability to teach basic voice and body integration. Specialization in another discipline is desirable. The preferred candidate should be able to teach dance techniques such as ballet, modern and/or ballroom, have a good knowledge of anatomy and alignment, and have some knowledge of Feldenkrais and/or Alexander or other body-centred systems, and some experience and understanding of emotional awareness through the body. S/he should also have knowledge of period dance. S/he must have extensive professional experience working with actors, both as a teacher and as a coach or choreographer. The candidate should also have the ability to teach devised theatre techniques and/or have extensive practical experience in theatre creation.

A letter of application with an up-to-date curriculum vitae, a statement of research and teaching interests, teaching evaluations, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers (plus fax and e-mail if possible) of three referees should be sent to:
